

Rome's food and clothing markets

Mercato Trionfale

Every Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat from 07:00-14:00 (Tues & Fri until 19:00)

Large food market just recently moved into a huge modern building half way down Via Andrea Doria open every morning except Sunday. There are also stalls selling clothes, shoes, bags, toys, jewelry and household products.

Campo De' Fiori

Every Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat from 07:00-14:00

Market in the heart of the historical centre sells fresh fruit, vegetables, flowers and more in the historic Campo De' Fiori, Rome.

Mercato Di Via Sannio

Every Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat from 07:30-14:00

New, used and vintage clothes market open next to San Giovanni metro stop on line A at Via Sannio.

Vittorio Emanuele Market

Every Mon, Wed, Thu, from 05:00 – 15:00; Tue, Fri, Sat from 05:00-17:00

Food market in Piazza Vittorio Emanuele with a wide range of international produce, particularly eastern influenced, every morning except Sunday.

Mercato Delle Stampe

Every Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat from 07:00-13:00

Situated in the historical centre this market has a large collection of old books, prints and magazines. At Largo Delle Fontanella Di Borghese.

Via Dei Volsci Market

Every Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat from 08:00-13:00

Busy food market situated in the heart of the San Lorenzo district on Via Dei Volsci.

Mercato Di Testaccio

Every Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat from 06:00-14:00

The very roman market is located in the Testaccio neighborhood across from the MACRO museum sells fresh fruit, vegetables, flowers and more. Monday to Saturday from 06:00-14:00 in Piazza Testaccio, Rome.

Porta Portese

Every Sunday ONLY from 06:00-14:00

This massive flea market takes over the Trastevere area every Sunday from 6am to 2pm. The vendors have a wide variety of goods, including antiques, coins, books, furniture, clubbing clothes, fake designer purses, home decor items, jewelry, and most anything else you can think of. Some vendors are willing to bargain and most will speak some English.

Market of Via Tito Speri

Every Mon, Tue, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat from 07:00-14:00 This is a very small market that takes up an entire street in the very heart of Prati (Piazza Mazzini). It is known for having specialty items and food of the highest quality. Monday to Saturday from 07:00-14:00 in Via Tito Speri, Rome.

